Liverpool Guild of Students

Keep text within your margins

Keep text and information on your flyer within your margins. The margin is the space between the edge of the page and where you lay out your content. You can see the purple line is my margin.

It is a good idea to have a margin of at least 3mm on all sides. Even more can make a design look better, but this is up to you.